

Affidavit of Notary Misconduct (Notary Public Complaint)

The attached form is designed to meet the statutory filing requirements pursuant to Alabama Code § 36-20-75. This form and the information provided are not substitutes for the advice and services of an attorney.

Commentary

Alabama Code § 36-20-75(d)(1) states that “[a]ny party to a transaction requiring a notarial certificate for certification for verification and any attorney licensed in this state who is involved in such a transaction in any capacity, may execute an affidavit and file it with either the Secretary of State or the judge of probate who issued the commission to the notary public, setting forth the action which the affiant alleges are violations.” The affidavit must be typewritten or legibly printed. Upon receipt of a properly submitted affidavit, the Secretary of State or the judge of probate who issued the commission to the notary public shall forward the affidavit to the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency, which will then initiate and carry out investigations of violations.

Instructions for Form

Important Notice Regarding the Complaint Process

Complaints must present factual evidence, within the personal knowledge of the person making the complaint, that the notary engaged in conduct that violates the laws and rules governing Alabama notaries public. Upon receipt of a properly submitted affidavit, the Secretary of State or the judge of probate who issued the commission to the notary public shall forward the affidavit to the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA). ALEA shall then initiate and carry out, on their own or in coordination with local law enforcement agencies, investigations of violations. Where appropriate, ALEA shall then refer the matter to the local district attorney for criminal prosecution.

The judge of probate who issued the commission to the notary public may also take disciplinary action against a notary public, ranging from a warning to a restriction, suspension, or revocation of a notarial commission. Additionally, the judge of probate may order injunctive relief against any person who violates the laws and rules governing the conduct of Alabama notaries public. This injunctive relief may include, but is not limited to, ordering the surrender and destruction of a notary commission and a notary seal.

Your complaint must allege a violation of Alabama Code § 36-20-75. Below, please check the specific allegation(s) and complete page 4. If additional allegations have been violated by the notary but are not listed below, please include those allegations on page 4 or on an additional page.

I have personal knowledge that the notary has done any of the following:

- Held himself/herself out to the public as a notary without being commissioned;
- Performed a notarial act with an expired, suspended, or restricted commission;
- Performed a notarial act before taking an oath of office;
- Charged a fee for a notarial act in excess of the maximum fee allowed by law ($10);
- Performed an acknowledgment or administered an oath or affirmation without the principal being present and without complying with remote notarization law requirements;
- Took an acknowledgement or administered an oath or affirmation without personal knowledge or satisfactory evidence of the identity of the principal;
- Took a verification or proof without personal knowledge or satisfactory evidence of the identity of the subscribing witness;
- Took an acknowledgement, a verification or proof, or administered an oath or affirmation, he or she reasonably believes to be false;
- Committed any of the acts described in this list with the intent to commit fraud;
- Committed any of the acts described in this list to intentionally assist with committing a fraudulent act.

Please continue to page 4.
