Introduction

Alabama's Secretary of State is statutorily required to serve on and/or appoint members to numerous boards and commissions. A large majority of these boards and commissions are discussed specifically in The Code of Alabama or the Constitution of Alabama 1901. Each of the board and commission titles below are directly linked to the Alabama Boards website, which should provide additional details about each listed group. The information is divided into two categories: boards that the Secretary of State serves on directly, and boards that the Secretary of State may make an appointment.
