

ELECTION 2005

FCPA Deadlines

January 18	Certified/registered mail deadline for 10/5-Day report due January 20
January 20	10/5-Day report due for elections to be held on January 25
January 25	Special General Elections for State House of Representatives District 65 & State Senate District 24. Special Primary Runoff Election for State House of Representatives District 82
January 27	Certified/registered mail deadline for 45-day report due January 31
January 29	Certified/registered mail deadline for Annual Report
January 31	Last day to file Annual Report covering contributions/expenditures for the 2004 calendar year 45-day report due for election scheduled for March 15
March 1	Certified/registered mail deadline for 10/5-Day report due March 3
March 3	10/5-Day report due for election to be held on March 8
March 8	Special General Election for State House of Representatives District 82 Certified/registered mail deadline for 10/5-Day report due March 10
March 10	10/5-Day report due for election to be held on March 15
March 15	Special Primary Election for State House of Representatives District 46
March 17	Certified/registered mail deadline for 45-Day report due March 21
March 21	45-day report due for election scheduled for May 3
April 19	Certified/registered mail deadline for 10/5-Day report due April 21
April 21	10/5-day report due for election scheduled for April 26
April 26	Special Primary Runoff Election for State House of Representatives District 46 Certified/registered mail deadline for 10/5-Day report due April 28
April 28	10/5-day report due for election scheduled for May 3
May 3	Special Primary Election for State House of Representatives District 72
June 6	Candidates participating in the 2006 primary election may begin raising campaign funds. All state candidates must stop fund raising during legislative sessions except during the 120 days prior to an election.

Upon the conclusion of the House 46 special primary runoff election and House 72 special primary election, the Secretary of State, pursuant to Amendment 97 of the Alabama Constitution of 1901, made a finding that a legally qualified candidate for election to each vacancy was unopposed. Therefore, under that amendment, the special general election for each of these vacancies was not to be held and the unopposed candidate was to be issued a certificate of election.